

SEABED

The trend immerses us in the depths of the seas and oceans – in search of new sources of inspiration and resources thanks to the latest technological advances. Here, the codes of classic and romantic style are combined. Flowing, interactive materials coexist with even lighter textures like air bubbles in water. The color palette of this trend is shades of water: from deep, saturated – to light, almost transparent. The main tone is set by the theme of the lagoon, expressive waves and gray scales. “SEABED” is about immersion in a whirlpool of feelings, from which images of refined or seductive naiads are born.

FABRICS

1. Deep-sea treasures: graceful marine flora in lace, coral elements in prints and embroideries, fishing nets in guipure with a large rapport or crochet.
2. Underwater topography: relief based on the surface effects of the sea depths, this is lace and thick jersey with a wavy pattern.
3. Shine of water: interactive textures that change their appearance - satin, silk, jersey with a shimmering shine and soft elastic mesh.
